Public perceptions 2023 Scotland

95%

of respondents who had an eye examination in the last two years were satisfied with the optometrist who carried it out

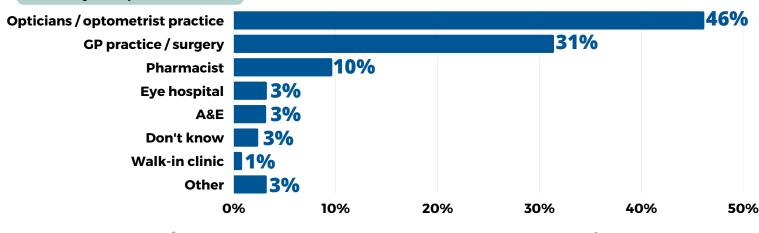

77%

said they had been for an eye examination in the last two years, with 3% saying they had never had an eye examination

If you woke up tomorrow with an eye problem...where would you go or who would you speak to first?

18%

shopped around before deciding which optician / optometrist to go to 14%

had experienced a situation where something has gone wrong with the care / service they received when visiting an opticians / optometrist practice

How confident or otherwise are you of receiving a high standard of care from each of the following healthcare services?

